

Announcements for Friday, November 11

Social Studies

World War I – known at the time as “The Great War” - fighting ended with the armistice signed in the eleventh hour, on the eleventh day in the eleventh month. November 11th at 11 am. In November 1919, President Wilson proclaimed November 11 as the first commemoration of Armistice Day. The United States Congress officially recognized the end of World War I on June 4, 1926. We are grateful for our veterans everyday, but today especially. Take a moment and thank a veteran today to honor Veterans Day.

Voice of Democracy

On this Veteran's Day we are proud to announce the winners of the Voice of Democracy Speech Contest celebrating why the Veteran is important. First place goes to Griffin Moorhead, second place goes to Maddie Stencel, and third place goes to Ben Fraley. Maddie Delleman's speech deserves Honorable Mention. Thanks to all who participated.

Girls Swim and Dive

Good luck to the Girls Swim and Dive Team, Lily Bartz, Meghan Cady, Alissa Novalija, Lily Owley and Avery Viste as they leave today to compete at state.
