

Announcements for Monday, January 30

As a reminder, the gym will be closed during A lunch for the remainder of this week.

Junior Prom

Attention Juniors! Our first planning meeting for Junior Prom will take place on Tuesday, January 31st @ 7:30 AM in Mrs. Gould's classroom, Room 249. Our first step is to discuss themes! Please join us if you can, everyone is welcome. See Mrs. Gould with questions.

Student Services

Class jewelry orders for the Class of 2025 will be collected on tomorrow, January 31st during lunch in the cafeteria. Remember to bring your order form and deposit to place your order. This is the final day that the free Companion Ring and choice of ADIDAS backpack or CLEER wireless earbuds promo items will be available with in-school and online class jewelry orders.

Wauwatosa East will be holding an ASVAB (Armed Service Vocational Aptitude Battery) exam on Thursday February 9th at 8:00am in the Academic Career Center. The ASVAB is a comprehensive, no cost, no commitment, career planning exploration program. This exam is open to any interested Junior or Senior student and the score can be used to enlist in a military branch after graduation. Spots are limited and the deadline to sign up is Friday February 3rd. If interested, stop down to room #136 and sign up with Mrs. Taylor or email her directly to reserve your spot.

UW Milwaukee will be holding a college visit on Tuesday January 31st during 6th hour in the Academic Career center. Students are required to pick up a pass from their guidance counselor or from Mrs. Taylor prior to attending the visit.

Students who participated in the 1st Practice ACT that was held last Sat. the 21st, please pick up your test booklet and score sheet from room #136

Athletics

Attention Senior Student Athletes, if you are being recruited to play college athletics and have made your decision on a school to attend, the athletic department will be hosting another signing ceremony on Wednesday, Feb. 1. Stop in the office or email Athletic Director Mrs. Guyant-Holloway to find out more and to get your name on the list for this event. Details of the event will follow.

The Hurricane Swim/Dive team finished 6th at Greater Metro/Classic 8 Conference this weekend. It was a meet full of season bests, personal bests & even a new team record! Top finishers include:

Julian Cortright who finished 2nd in the 100 Fly & 100 Breastroke. Julian's breastroke set a new East & Team Record which broke his own record that he set in early January!

Jacob Thuli 4th in Diving

200 Medley Relay - Franklin Cook, Cortright, Nolan Krebs, Jacob Thuli

Franklin Cook 4th in the 100 Freestyle

200 Freestyle Relay - Cook, Cortright, Xander Zwart, Jack Eder

Next up Sectionals @ Greenfield HS on Feb 11th.

Athletic Events this Week

February 3-Boys Basketball hosts Germantown at 7:00pm and Boys Hockey plays at The Pond against Marquette at 4:50pm.

Boys hockey is back on the ice Feb. 4 at 7:10pm against Arrowhead.

National Art Society

Attention National Art Honor Society Members:

Our next meeting will be held after school in Art Studio B on TUESDAY, JANUARY 31ST.

Check our canvas page for more details.

Privileges

Attention Juniors and Seniors! If you received an email approving you for privileges, please don't forget to come to the main office to collect your privileges card in between classes, during lunch, or after school. This card must be carried and presented if asked to verify that you have privileges during your study hall. Only students who have received an approval email and have a study hall in their schedule can sign out for privileges via Infinite Campus.

Band

A big congratulations to Maydine Bellot who won the Civic Music Association High School Competition. Maydine will be performing in the Showcase Recital on Sunday, February 12th at the Milwaukee Youth Arts Center. Maydine was also named as an honorable mention for the Milwaukee Youth Symphony's Concerto Competition. Congratulations Maydine!

Congratulations to Lily Knaack for winning the Waukesha Area Symphonic Band 2023 Concerto Competition. Lily will be the featured soloist on their March 7th Concert. Congratulations Lily!