

Announcements for Tuesday, January 31

As a reminder, the gym will be closed during A lunch for the remainder of this week.

Student Services

Class jewelry orders for the Class of 2025 will be collected today during lunch in the cafeteria. Remember to bring your order form and deposit to place your order. This is the final day that the free Companion Ring and choice of ADIDAS backpack or CLEER wireless earbuds promo items will be available with in-school and online class jewelry orders.

Wauwatosa East will be holding an ASVAB (Armed Service Vocational Aptitude Battery) exam on Thursday February 9th at 8:00am in the Academic Career Center. The ASVAB is a comprehensive, no cost, no commitment, career planning exploration program. This exam is open to any interested Junior or Senior student and the score can be used to enlist in a military branch after graduation. Spots are limited and the deadline to sign up is Friday February 3rd. If interested, stop down to room #136 and sign up with Mrs. Taylor or email her directly to reserve your spot.

UW Milwaukee will be holding a college visit today during 6th hour in the Academic Career center. Students are required to pick up a pass from their guidance counselor or from Mrs. Taylor prior to attending the visit.

Students who participated in the 1st Practice ACT that was held last Sat. the 21st, please pick up your test booklet and score sheet from room #136

Athletics

Two individual accomplishments happened last week by Tosa East student athletes. Senior basketball player Olivia Close hit her 1,000th career points on Friday night. Fellow senior, wrestler Nikita Adamov, earned his 100th career victory on the mat last week at the Tom Janssen Invite. Both are great accomplishments which Olivia and Nikita achieved in their respective sports. Congratulations Olivia and Nikita!
