

Announcements for Wednesday, February 1

Black History Month

February is Black History Month. This is an annual celebration of achievements by black Americans and a time for recognizing the central role of African Americans in the story of the United States. Throughout the month of February you will hear about various individuals and accomplishments. Our Black Student Union is putting together a presentation that will take place during advisory on February 15th.

On February 1st, 1901 Langston Hughes was born in Joplin Missouri. Hughes was a poet who is also known for writing novels, short stories, essays and plays that often depicted the joys and hardships of the black community in the early 1900s. Langston Hughes was also a prominent leader during the Harlem Renaissance

Student Services

Wauwatosa East will be holding an ASVAB (Armed Service Vocational Aptitude Battery) exam on Thursday February 9th at 8:00am in the Academic Career Center. The ASVAB is a comprehensive, no cost, no commitment, career planning exploration program. This exam is open to any interested Junior or Senior student and the score can be used to enlist in a military branch after graduation. Spots are limited and the deadline to sign up is Friday February 3rd. If interested, stop down to room #136 and sign up with Mrs. Taylor or email her directly to reserve your spot.

Club Red

Do you like to play board games? Do you like to eat in a quieter environment? Would you like to meet someone new? Club Red hosts board games for anyone interested in the Career Center (across from Student Services). Bring your lunch, play a game, bring a friend, make a friend.

Senior Ball

Attention seniors! Senior ball tickets will be sold during Lunch A & B in the Student Services office today. Tickets are $65 and are limited. The final day of purchase is February 14th, no exceptions. This is a great event for you to eat dinner together, dance, and celebrate the last semester of high school. Make sure you get your ticket before they run out!

Forensics

A reminder for all members of the forensics team: there is a mandatory meeting in Mr. Balcerak's room immediately after school on Friday. All team members must attend unless other arrangements have been made with Mr. Balcerak. See you there!
