

Announcements for Wednesday, February 8

Black History Month

On February 8th, 1986 Oprah Winfrey became the African American woman to host a nationally televised talk show. Throughout her career Oprah has won numerous awards including: being inducted into the National Women's Hall of Fame, 18 Daytime Emmy Awards,, two Primetime Emmy Awards,, a Tony Award, a Peabody Award and the Jean Hersholt Humanitarian Award.

Senior Ball

Attention seniors! Senior ball tickets will be sold during Lunch A & B in the Student Services office today. Tickets are $65 and are limited. The final day of purchase is February 14th, no exceptions. This is a great event for you to eat dinner together, dance, and celebrate the last semester of high school. Make sure you get your ticket before they run out!

SAAC

Reminder to all Student Athlete Advisory Council members, today is the monthly meeting after school in room 280. Make sure you are in attendance to continue to work on your leadership and to vote for the Athlete of the Month.

Amnesty International

Do you play in a band? Have a group you like to jam with? Have always wanted to try singing or performing in front of a live audience? If yes, consider playing at this year's Jamnesy Concert hosted by Amnesty International. We will have a meeting for all potential musicians on Monday, February 13th in Mr. McHugh's room. Please see Mr. McHugh, Mr. McDaniel, Ben Frailey, or Lucy Hildebrand if you have any questions or can't make the meeting.
