

News Release

For further information, contact
Laura Wainscott, (414) 773-1062

For Immediate Release

July 12, 2016

Wauwatosa East High School Educator Named Claes Nobel Educator of Distinction

The Wauwatosa School District congratulates Jennifer Lato, band director at Wauwatosa East High School, who was selected as a Claes Nobel Educator of Distinction by the National Society of High School Scholars (NSHSS). Jennifer was nominated for her outstanding dedication and commitment to excellence in the classroom.

According to the NSHSS, student members are invited to nominate the educator who has made the most significant contribution to their academic endeavors. The honor recognizes exemplary educators whose passion and devotion inspire their students to grow and develop as scholars, leaders and citizens.

Wauwatosa East HS Principal Nick Hughes said, “Mrs. Lato is a tremendous educator and leader of the Wauwatosa East Marching Band. Our students are provided endless learning opportunities in and out of the classroom because of her leadership and dedication to the program. She is certainly worthy of this honor!”

The NSHSS recognizes academic excellence at the high school level and helps to advance the goals and aspirations of high-achieving millennials through unique learning experiences, scholarships, internships, international study and peer networks. Learn more at nshss.org

###

The Wauwatosa School District does not discriminate on the basis of a person's color, sex, race, religion, national origin, ancestry, creed, pregnancy, marital status, sexual orientation, or physical, mental, emotional or learning disability, or any other characteristic protected by state or federal law.